DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the N. Y. World.

SUFFRAGE IN THE NORTHERN STATES.

There are but five of the Northern States, and these five are New England States, which make no distinction in the right of suffrage, on account of color.

MAINE gives the right of suffrage to every male citizen of the United States who has resided in the State three months, excepting paupers, persons under guardianship, and Indians not taxed.

NEW HAMPSHIRE admits as electors "every male inhabitant," excepting paupers, and persons excused from paying taxes at their own request.

VERMONT gives the ballot to "every man" twenty-one years old who has resided one year in the State.

MASSACHUSETTS admits every male citizen twenty-one years old, excepting paupers and persons under guardianship; but no person can vote or be eligible to office who is not able to read the Constitution in the English language and write his name.

RHODE ISLAND gives the ballot to every male citizen of full age, one year in the State, six months in the town, and who owns real estate worth $134, or renting $7 per year; and to every native male citizen, twenty-one years old, two years in the State, six months in the town, duly registered, who has paid $1 tax or done militia service within the year.

CONNECTICUT gives the ballot to all white citizens of full age who have resided one year in the State, and six months in the town. Negroes who were free men (if any such survive) at the adoption of the State Constitution in 1818 may vote. The question of negro suffrage was submitted to the people October 2, 1865; whole vote, 60,706; majority against, 6,272—in a State that in April of the same year gave a Radical majority of 11,035.

NEW YORK—every male citizen of full age, ten days a citizen, one year in the State, four months in the county, and thirty days in the district. But no negro can vote unless he has been three years a citizen of the State, and for one year the owner of a freehold worth $250 over incumbrances, and on which he has paid a tax.

NEW JERSEY—"every white male citizen" of full age, resident one year in the State, and five months in the county, excepting paupers, idiots, insane persons, and persons convicted of crimes excluding them from being witnesses.

PENNSYLVANIA—every white freeman resident one year in the State and ten days in the district.

OHIO—every white male citizen of full age resident one year in the State. Negro suffrage was submitted to the people in 1867 with the following result; for, 216,987; against, 255,340; majority against, 38,353.

WISCONSIN admits every white citizen of full age; persons of Indian blood declared citizens by act of Congress and civilized persons of Indian descent; but the amendment to State Constitution to strike out the word "white" was rejected in November, 1865, by 8,059 majority.

MINNESOTA—the same as Wisconsin with regard to white citizens, and admits Indians certified by District Court to be fit for citizenship. In November 1855, the State rejected negro suffrage by 2,000 majority, and again in 1867 by 1,298 majority.

OREGON—every white citizen of full age, six months resident in the State, and every alien of full age, resident one year in the United States, but no negro, Chinaman or mulatto."

INDIANA—every white male citizen of the United States, resident one year in the State, but "no negro, or mulatto shall have the right of suffrage."

MICHIGAN—every white male citizen of full age, and to every civilized male Indian not belonging to any tribe.

MISSOURI—the Constitution of 1865 excludes blacks from voting.

ILLINOIS—every white male citizen of full age resident one year in the State.

KANSAS—every white male citizen adult, resident six months in the State. The question of negro suffrage was presented in 1867, and, in a total vote of 29,904, was rejected by a majority of 8,038.

CALIFORNIA—every white male United States citizen, (or of Mexico, who elected to become a citizen under the treaty of Queretaro,) of full age; no Chinaman, negro, or mulatto can vote.

NEVADA—law similar to that of Oregon.

"The Thirty four Counties designated as WEST VIRGINIA" do not permit negroes to vote. Congress passed bill enfranchising negroes in District of Columbia, December 14, 1865; in Senate, 32 yeas, 13 nays: in House, 126 yeas, 46 nays; President Johnson vetoed bill January 7, 1867; same day Senate re-passed the bill, yeas 29, nays 10, and the House by 113 yeas to 38 nays, when the bill became a law. May 15, 1866, House passed a bill that "there shall be no denial of the elective franchise to citizens of the United States because of race or color, and all persons shall be equal before the law."—to amend the organic acts of the Territories of Nebraska, Colorado, Dakota, Montana, Washington, Idaho, Arizona, Utah and New Mexico. The vote was 79 yeas to 45 nays. January 10, 1867, the Senate adopted a substitute that there should be no denial of the elective franchise "on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude" in any Territory of the United States now or hereafter to be organized.—This bill was passed by 24 yeas to 8 nays and in the House, same day, yeas 104 and nays 38. This bill became a law by failure of the President to sign the bill, or return it with veto, within ten days after its presentation.

A GOOD HIT.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday, Mr. Mungen asked leave to offer a resolution reciting that the welfare of the country, and especially of the dominant party at this particular juncture, imperatively demand the admission of at least one State under the reconstruction acts; that it had been ascertained that many of the Alabama freedmen had deposited their ballots in the post-offices, contrary to the instructions of the military commander; and declaring that it is highly improper that such ballots should be lost, and that, without further delay, Alabama be admitted into the Union; and that any member of any party, "or any other man," voting against the resolution, be adjudged guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors, and be immediately impeached.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, interrupted the reading of the resolution, and Mr. Chanler objected to its being received.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or all debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

THE "MONGREL."

The "so called" Convention were engaged, on Friday evening, in considering the Legislative Article of the proposed so-called Constitution. It was finally passed with a few amendments. We will publish it, as soon as we can obtain a copy, in its perfected shape. Among the amendments was another Yankee innovation,—changing the old and time-honored name of the House of Commons to that of "House of Representatives." The conclusive argument, we presume, in favor of the change, was that so often alleged by the foreign delegates on the floor, viz: that New York, or Massachusetts, or Ohio, so designate their lower branch of the Legislature.

On Saturday, the "trooly loil" again shirked an investigation into the mal appropriation of the people's money to pay their individual postage. Try them again and again. Smoke out the pirates!

The resolution of the late nigger-Radical nominating Convention, in favor of disfranchising white men, was presented and tabled. What prompted this disposition of the manifesto of the Tucker Hall darkies, we are unable to say.

The Homestead was under consideration. We glean from the report of proceedings that a large retrospective Homestead was agreed on, which so incensed Candler, of Buncombe, that he declared his purpose to stump his section against the Constitution; whereupon Abbott said he held him in contempt, and Candler replied that he held him in contempt—and there was contempt felt for the whole concern, in a very general way.

A resolution was adopted, requesting Gen. Canby to enforce the "Relief" Ordinance of the Convention.

NEWBERN.—A Conservative rally will be held in Newbern, on Tuesday, the 10th inst.

CONSERVATIVE NOMINEES—LABORS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Agreeably to appointment, the Conservative State Executive Committee met, in this city, in the Supreme Court room, on the 28th. ult., and continued in session, with a short interval, until the hour of 12 o'clock at night, and adjourned, subject to the call of the Chairman. The result of its labors is before the public. Never, perhaps, was so much done, in the same space of time, and we appeal to candid men, of all shades of opinion, if they have ever known, under the circumstances, a work better done.—A more able and efficient or a better ticket was never before presented to the people of North Carolina. That it will entirely suit the many shades of opinion, though agreeing heartily on the great issues of the day, which prevail among the entire Conservative people of the State, no one could have expected. Among so many eminent and worthy Conservative men, in the State, it was not possible to meet the views and wishes of all, perhaps; yet, we may confidently ask, who could have done better?

Before proceeding to nominate, the Committee, and others, (the Committee having asked the counsel of the Conservatives in the so-called Convention, and others,) calmly and fully discussed the propriety of calling back the Conservative Convention to make the nominations. But the shortness of the time, the scarcity of money, and the approach of the Courts and of the farming season, led them to conclude that the Committee must perform that duty.

The Committee could not avoid looking narrowly into the contest before them. The opposition is well drilled and fully equipped and vigorously preparing for the conflict.—The 70,000 negro voters in the State have been marshalled under the opposition banner. The blacks, of their own will, have made their own election to go with the Radicals. The only alternative, therefore, left to the white people, was to strike for a white man's party and a white man's government. The Committee saw no chance of avoiding a vigorous, bold and determined contest; hence the selection of the able and gallant standard-bearers, ZEBULON B. VANCE and EDWARD D. HALL.

The Conservatives had, over and over again, endorsed the policy of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, and had, on two recent occasions, fully sustained the administration of that noble old Roman, JONATHAN WORTH, and his associates in the civil offices of the State. They had proven themselves capable, honest and able officers, and, therefore, it was doubtless proper that nothing should be done, by which those administrations might even seem to be ignored. Two conditions, only, seemed to be fixed in the action of the Committee; first, that every nominee should be known and believed to be truly Conservative; secondly, that, in the selection of candidates, a vigorous campaign must be secured, as far as possible, and no impediment to success thrown into the ticket, either by the removal of any one already in position, or by the retention or supply of any one. Success, and a full, vigorous canvass, it will be seen, were the aims.

It will be seen, therefore, that if these views guided the Committee, nothing better, under the circumstances which surrounded them, could have been devised.—There are many gentlemen of eminent worth, whom all would have delighted to honor, but this was impossible.

In the selection of Judges, the Committee, doubtless, had the greatest difficulty. All desired to retain the old Judges, if it could be done without compromising in anydegree the principles and aims of the Conservatives. They have steadily acted upon the principle, that the Judiciary must be kept as free as possible from the bias of party, and, it may be truthfully said, that the Judiciary themselves, of this State, have illustrated this principle in their course. But a serious difficulty presented itself. It was known, that the Radical Convention had voted for the nomination of several of the Judges, and had nominated three of them. One had accepted that nomination, but with no committal as a party man. No Judge on the bench, in the State, could be presumed to seek or be willing to accept a nomination as a party Judge, yet it was the duty of the Committee to protect the Conservatives of the State, against the suspicion of nominating any man, for any office, whatever, committed, either directly or indirectly, to the principles or aims of the Radical party.—We assure the Conservatives of the State, that no member of the Committee could have been forced, under any circumstances, to vote for any gentleman, for any office, if in so doing he was obliged to compromise, in the least, the principles or purposes of the Conservatives. This, we are certain has not been done in any instance, and we therefore will give the ticket our most unqualified and earnest support.

GOV. GRAHAM'S SPEECH.—It will be remembered that the Hon. William A. Graham was unanimously requested, by the late Conservative State Convention, to write out, for publication and general circulation, his very able and eloquent speech, on being called to preside over that body.

Gov. Graham has complied with the wishes of the Convention, and we have just received his manuscript. We shall defer its publication until Wednesday, in order that it may appear in our Semi-Weekly of that day, as well as in the Daily. It will also appear in the Weekly Sentinel, and the Executive Committee will doubtless have it put in a form suitable for very extensive dissemination.

This great speech will prove an admirable campaign document,—presenting, as it does, in the clear and forcible style of the distinguished orator, who wields so largely the confidence and affections of our people, the vital, living, momentous issues of the hour.

CANVASSERS.—The following recommendations have been made, and are hereby announced by the Executive Committee:

BERTIE.—Col. David Outlaw, Col. Samuel B. Spruill, J. L. Mitchell, Esq., Jos. B. Cherry, Esq., and P. H. Winston, Jr.

"UP GUARDS! AND AT THEM!"

The Conservative organization of the State is now well-nigh completed. We have a glorious State ticket in the field.—District Conventions will soon be called for the nomination of candidates for Congress and Solicitors. Canvassers,—for the most part active, rising, enthusiastic young men,—have been appointed in a large majority of the counties and will soon be designated for all of them. Sub Committees have been, or will be, appointed for every Captain's District in the State. Everything, thus far, looks well and promising. What remains to be done is—

In the first place, let the Canvassers go actively, energetically, and promptly, about their work. Let them canvass every portion of their respective counties, and, by every proper means, seek to arouse the white men of the State to a live sense of the dangers which impend over them.

Let County Conventions be held in every county, to bring out candidates for the Legislature. Let these candidates, also, go instantaneously and actively to work.

Let Conservative Clubs be formed in every city, town, and village, and then hold weekly meetings.

Let one or more mass meetings be held in every county, and let every inducement be offered and afforded to the people to turn out.

Let the Sub-Committees proceed at once to the enrolment of Conservative voters, and of white men, who, ashamed of their color, propose to act with the enemies of their race. Let every man be enrolled! This is of the highest importance. We must know how we stand.

Let every Conservative man, who has thus far failed to register, be earnestly exhorted to do so, by every consideration which affects the good of himself, his children, his race and his country.

In one word, let every true white man in North Carolina constitute himself a COMMITTEE OF ONE, whose aim and purpose shall be work! work! WORK! and whose slogan shall be: NORTH CAROLINA MUST BE GOVERNED BY WHITE MEN!

Our gallant standard bearers in the field will do their whole duty. Let us do ours, and all will come right in the end!

ACCEPTANCE OF JUDGES PEARSON AND READE.

The following correspondence speaks for itself. It will be seen that Chief Justice Pearson and Judge Reade accept the nominations tendered them by the State Conservative Executive Committee, in terms worthy of the elevated positions which they now hold.

Judge Battle, having left the city, has not yet been heard from, but will be, doubtless, in the course of a few days:

Hon. R. M. Pearson:

SIR:—The Executive Committee of the Conservative party, now assembled in this City, have nominated you for the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

Hoping that you will accept the same, we are

Very respectfully,
Your ob't servants,
D. G. FOWLE,
R. C. BADGER, } For the
M. A. BLEDSOE, } Committee.

[A similar letter was addressed to Judge Reade.]

Gentlemen:—I accept the nomination of which you have just informed me. You are aware that I have already accepted the nomination of the Convention of the Republican party. As Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, should the people of the State elect me to fill that responsible station, I shall feel honored by this concurrence of opinion in regard to my efforts as a Judge for more than half a life time, and, without reference to party affiliations, to which, as a Judge, I have never yielded, I shall, to the best of my ability, endeavor to discharge the duties of the office, without fear or favor.

Yours very respectfully,
R. M. PEARSON.

MESSRS. FOWLE, BLEDSOE AND BADGER, Committee.

Gentlemen:—I have just received your letter, informing me of the nomination of my name, by the Executive Committee of the Conservative party, for election to the seat which I now occupy upon the Supreme Court Bench. I am honored by this mark of your confidence in me as a Judge, and accept the nomination, without reference to any party affiliation.

I am nothing but a Judge. If elected by the people, I shall, as I always have done, declare the law to the best of my ability, and do equal justice to the rich and the poor, to the State and to individuals, without fear and without partiality.

Thanking you for the kind terms of your communication,

I am, very respectfully, &c.,
E. G. READE.

THE SENATORIAL DISTRICTS.—As stated elsewhere, we shall publish, as soon as we obtain a copy, the "Legislative" article of the mongrel Constitution. It will then be seen that the Senatorial Districts have been apportioned with special reference to negro supremacy in that branch of the Assembly. Counties, in which there is a white majority, have been incorporated into Districts with Counties in which there is a decided negro majority, in order to prevent the election of Senators, who would represent the sentiments and feelings of the white men of the State. For example: There is a white majority in Wake, which will be decidedly increased after another registration. But the large County of Wake is tacked on to Franklin, in which there is a negro majority, and, instead of each County electing its own Senator, which it is entitled to do, by virtue of population, the two counties are to elect two Senators, conjointly—in order that the negro majority in Franklin may overbalance the white majority in Wake, and thus secure the election of two negro Senators or so called white representatives of the nigger!

This is simply infamous; but it is of a part with the general purpose of the hybrids to Africanize and Radicalize North Carolina. Every move that they make increases the obligation resting upon the true white men of the State to defeat their unhallowed and diabolical designs, and will serve to stir and stimulate the Anglo-Saxon heart of North Carolina!

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

NIGHT SESSION.

FRIDAY, Feb. 28, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 7½ o'clock.

The Chair announced the following gentlemen as the Committee on the Ashley-Durham affair: Messrs. Daniel, Nicholson, Rich, Ellis and Forkner.

On motion of Mr. Sweet, the report of the Committee on the Legislative Department was taken up.

Sections 1, 2 and 3 were adopted.

When section 4 was reached, Mr. Sweet moved that the supplemental report of the Committee be substituted for section 4.

The question was taken, first, on the question and carried.

The question recurring on the distribution of the different districts, as reported in the supplementary section,

Mr. Sweet moved the apportionment of the 1st District be adopted. Carried.

Mr. Sweet moved that the county of Tyrrell be transferred from the 3d to the 2d district.

The 2d and 3d districts were adopted as amended.

The apportionment, as reported, of Senatorial Districts, from No. 4 to No. 20, inclusive, was adopted.

In the 1st District, Mr. Merritt moved a division—that each county (Person and Granville) have its own Senator.

Mr. Ragland objected.

Mr. Merritt's amendment was put to a vote and lost.

The apportionment, as reported, was adopted, for the remaining Districts.

The entire section was then declared adopted.

Sections 5, 6, 7 and 8 were adopted.

In section 9, Mr. Hay moved to amend, by adding a property qualification of $500.

Mr. Holt called for the yeas and nays, which were refused him.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost.

The section, as reported, was then adopted.

In section 10, Mr. Abbott moved to strike out the words "House of Commons" and insert the words "House of Representatives." Carried.

Mr. Colgrove offered the following substitute for the whole section:

"Each Representative shall be a qualified elector, and reside in the county 12 months before the election."

The Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Sweet, accepted the substitute and it was adopted.

Sections 11, 12 and 13 were adopted.

Sections 14 to 27, inclusive, were adopted.

For section 28, Mr. Sweet offered the following substitute, which was adopted:

"The terms of office of Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall commence at the time of their election, and the terms of office of those elected at the first election held under this Constitution shall terminate at the same time as if they had been elected at the first ensuing regular election."

Section 29 was adopted.

Section 30 was amended, by the insertion of a proviso, requiring the General Assembly to assemble in 15 days after the ratification of the Constitution by the people.

The section, as amended, was adopted.

The bill, having been read three times, was put on its final passage as a whole, and it was adopted.

On motion of Mr. French, of Bladen, the House adjourned.

MORNING SESSION.

SATURDAY, Feb. 29, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Ashley, of the Convention.

A resolution of the late Radical nominating Convention, declaring it, as the sense of that body, that "rebels" should be disfranchised, was read.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, called for the yeas and nays on the motion.

After some colloquy and personal explanations, Messrs. McDonald and Graham insisted upon the yeas and nays being called, but they were refused, and the resolution was tabled by acclamation.

The hour for the special order having arrived,

Mr. Ellis moved to postpone the same, to act upon his resolution introduced concerning the mail matter of this body.

The motion was lost, and the House refused to postpone.

The Judiciary report was taken up.

Mr. Rodman moved to reconsider the vote on the 29th section. Carried.

He then moved to strike out that portion allowing the Clerk of the Superior Court to appoint a Coroner, and insert: "In case of a vacancy existing for any cause, in any of the offices created by this section, the Clerk of the Superior Court may fill the same for the unexpired term."

Mr. Watts moved to amend by striking out "Clerk of the Superior Court," and say "the County Commissioners shall appoint the officers."

Mr. Tourgee moved that the report be printed, with the amendment. Adopted.

The Homestead majority and minority reports were now taken up and read.

Mr. Rich moved to strike out, in the 1st. section, "8" and insert "5."

Mr. Hodnett objected. He said that the first proposition was exceedingly liberal and he opposed the amendment. Three hundred dollars worth of personal property, one thousand dollars worth of real estate, and property for the wife, separate from the husband, he deemed sufficient.

The amendment was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr Tourgee moved to strike out all after the word "debt," in the 5th. line, 1st. section. He advocated his amendment. He thought the latter part of the section would tend to deprive men of the benefit of the present law, (among the few things he could praise the late Legislature for.) He favored the passage of a retrospective homestead law. He was willing to see the report pass its 2nd. reading, but thought that final action should be postponed until the matter could be more thoroughly considered.

Mr. Abbott was favorable to a liberal homestead. Many States have $3,000; other $5,000. He had voted for Mr. Rich's amendment, and thought a homestead should be at least for $3,000.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell: A retrospective homestead of $3,000?

Mr Abbott: I am not now dealing with that. When it comes up, I will consider it.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, expressed himself as in favor of a most liberal homestead, of a prospective nature, but he thought one of a retrospective nature could not be legally passed by this body. He wished a liberal homestead, and, at the same time, a uniform one, neither too excessive nor too illiberal.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, also favored a homestead law of a retroactive nature.—He was a relief man—come in what shape it would.

Galloway (negro) would vote for a homestead that would protect the widow and the orphan. The colored man did not get the benefit of the present law. He wished one that would protect all and did not tend towards the repudiation of honest debts, and, after discussing the matter at some length, he wound up by saying, in reply to some of Mr. McDonald's allusions, that, whatever he had said or done, he had drawn his mileage to Raleigh by the right road.

Mr. McDonald was about to show his papers in regard to the matter, when Harris, of Wake, (negro) arose to a point of order in the matter, which the Chair sustained, and Mr. McDonald took his seat.

After some debate, participated in by Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) and Mr. Jones, of Caldwell,

Mr. Heaton arose and said that the amendment had a retrospective effect, and it was tinctured with repudiation. That was the issue. The sentiments of the delegate from Guilford (Mr. Tourgee) were well known to be repudiatory, and all who voted for his amendment would vote for repudiation. He was in favor of a liberal homestead; but he could not consistently stand here, after taking an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and advocate the passage of this measure, which meant nothing more nor less than repudiation.

Hood (negro) did not agree with Mr. Heaton as to this amendment meaning repudiation. He was as much opposed to repudiation as any man on the floor, but would vote for the amendment, as it did not even approach anything like repudiation.

Mr. Abbott said that it was well known that he strenuously opposed anything like repudiation, but he was rather inclined to favor Mr. Tourgee's amendment, as he thought the necessities of the people were so great that some relief should be afforded. He was in favor of not arguing, now, the question, whether a retrospective homestead law was unconstitutional or not, but just say that we exempt so much and let the matter be with the courts, and, if they decided that it was unconstitutional, why, then, the matter would be settled.

Mr. Tourgee said that Mr. Abbott had stated the matter fairly.

The question recurred upon Mr. Tourgee's amendment, the yeas and nays were called for and had, and the vote stood: yeas 50, nays 39.

(When the vote was announced, it elicited great applause.)

The section, as amended, was adopted.

In section 26d, Hood (negro) moved to strike out all after the word "debt," in 9th. line.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, objected; he hoped the amendment would not prevail.

Mr. Tourgee then moved to strike out all after "debt," in 9th. line, down to the end of the 10th. line.

The question being divided, the motion to strike out prevailed.

The question recurred on the amendment of Hood, (negro,) to strike out all after "Constitution," in the 10th line; and it was adopted.

Mr. Tourgee moved to insert, after the word "debt," in the 10th line, the following clause:

"Provided, That no sale or mortgage of the homestead shall be of any legal force, in case the owner of the homestead is in debt to the amount of one-third the value of the homestead, unless by the consent of the creditor, and the consent of his wife, signified, on her private examination, before a Clerk of the Superior Court of the State."

Mr. Graham, of Orange, was opposed to this tying up a man's property. He was not in favor of a very large homestead, as a large one would tend to the injury of the poor man. It would effectually kill his credit.

Hood, (negro,) offered the following substitute, which was adopted:

"Provided, That the homestead may be exchanged for other property of the same nature, by the owner thereof, with the voluntary consent of his wife, signified, on her private examination, before a Judge of some Court of this State.

Mr. Candler said that a retrospective homestead law of this nature was nothing more nor less than repudiation, and, if such a thing was incorporated in this Constitution, he would take the stump in his section against the ratification of the Constitution.

Mr. Abbott said that he held a man in contempt, that allowed such words to fall from his lips, in order to intimidate the Convention.

Mr. Candler said he did not think that a youth like him could intimidate the Convention, and he held any man in favor of repudiation as much contempt as the gentlemen from New Hanover could possibly hold him.

Harris, of Wake, (negro) next spoke in defence of the action of the Convention.

So did Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, and he proceeded to eulogize the sobriety of the Convention, when he was called to order by Hood, (negro) who stated that the temperance question was not under discussion.

Mr. Candler said that it seemed to be the idea of this body, that, frame what kind of Constitution they chose, the Republicans of the State would ratify it. That was a mistake; they would reject a bad Constitution from their hands, as soon as they would reject one coming from the Conservatives, and he did not blame them. He represented a white constituency—one holding property and one largely in debt, but still they would, almost to a man, reject a Constitution, coming from what source it might, that contained any clause looking towards repudiation.

Mr. Heaton here asked leave to introduce a resolution, requesting Gen. Canby to issue orders enforcing the ordinance in relation to relief, as some of the Superior Court Judges were disregarding it.

The rules were suspended, and the resolution passed.

The discussion of the 2d section was resumed, and, after some little debate, a motion to adjourn was made and carried.

THE NEW RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter any election authorized by the act passed March 23, 1867, entitled "An act supplementary to an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration," shall be decided by a majority of the votes actually cast; and at the election in which the question of the adoption or rejection of any Constitution is submitted, any person duly registered in the State may vote in the election district where he offers to vote, when he has resided therein for ten days next preceding such election, upon presentation of his certificate of registration, his affidavit, or other satisfactory evidence, under such regulations as the district commanders may prescribe.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the Constitutional Convention of any of the States mentioned in the acts to which this is amendatory may provide, that at the time of voting upon the ratification of the Constitution the registered voters may vote also for members of the House of Representatives of the United States, and for all elective officers provided for by the said Constitution; and the same election officers who shall make the return of the votes cast on the ratification or rejection of the Constitution shall enumerate and certify the votes cast for members of Congress."

[The above has passed both Houses, and is now awaiting a veto.]

THE CONGRESSIONAL AND JUDICIAL DISTRICTS.

At a meeting of the Conservative State Executive Committee, held in this city, on Saturday, the following Committees were appointed,—the Committees in the Judicial Districts to make all necessary arrangements as to times and places of holding District Conventions for the nomination of Solicitors, and those in the Congressional Districts to make all the arrangements for Conventions for the nomination of candidates for Congress. The various Committees are earnestly urged to act promptly.

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS.

1st. District.—Messrs. W N H Smith, of Hertford, M L Eure, of Gates, and W A Moore, of Chowan.

2nd. District.—George Howard, of Edgecombe, F B Satterthwaite, of Beaufort, and J E Moore, of Martin.

3rd. District.—C S Wooten, of Wayne, H J Bryan, of Craven, and John M Ferry, of Carteret.

4th. District.—A A McKoy, of Sampson, Thomas S Kenan, of Duplin, and J A Engelhard, of New Hanover.

5th. District.—Archibald McLean, of Cumberland, Thomas S Ashe, of Anson, and W L Steele, of Richmond.

6th. District.—M W Ransom, of Northampton, Jo J Davis, of Franklin, Willis H. Jenkins, of Granville.

7th. District.—J T Morehead, Jr., of Guilford, Livingston Brown, of Caswell, H A London, Jr., Chatham.

8th. District.—J M. Leach, of Davidson, T M Robbins, of Rowan, Rufus L Patterson, of Forsythe.

9th. District.—Plato Durham, of Cleaveland, J H Watson, of Mecklenburg, Jno F Hoke, of Lincoln.

10th. District.—A C Avery, of Burke, R Armfield, of Wilkes, R F. Simonton, of Iredell.

11th. District.—Marcus Erwin, of Buncombe, N Kelsey, of Madison, Robt. Pansford, of Yancey.

12th. District.—Cassius Gudger, of Macon, W L Love, of Haywood, L S Gash, of Henderson.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

1st. District.—W R Martin, of Pasquotank, R B Peebles, of Northampton, P T Henry, of Bertie.

2nd. District.—Wm Biggs, of Edgecombe, W A Allen, of Duplin, and Maj Jno Hughes, of Craven.

3rd. District.—D C Allen, of Brunswick, A J Jones, of Columbus, Rory McNair, of Robeson.

4th. District.—H G Williams, of Nash, T Stead, of Johnston, W J Green, of Wayne.

5th. District.—Levi M Scott, of Guilford, S Jackson, of Randolph, Frank C Robbins, of Davidson.

6th. District.—Robt D Johnston, of Charlotte, S H Walkup, of Union, M L McCorkle, of Catawba.

7th District.—Thad D Bryson, of Jackson, Jas H Merrimon, of Buncombe, A M Erwin, of McDowell.

JONES COUNTY.—The Conservatives will hold a meeting at Trenton, the 2d Saturday in March. They want speakers. We hope Col. Hall, Maj. Hughes, and others, will be with them. The Conservatives of Jones will make a gallant fight.

"MILTON CHRONICLE."—We are glad to welcome to our table this old and staunch journal, redivivus Mr. Evans has lost none of his former energy and fire, and the Chronicle promises, as in days of yore, to be a spirited, racy journal.

SUPREME COURT.—This body adjourned on Saturday last, after a patient and laborious session.

WILMINGTON.—The Journal says that the Conservative meeting in Wilmington, on Friday evening, was the largest and most enthusiastic which has been seen in that city for many a day. It speaks in the highest terms of the able and eloquent speech of Col. W. L. Steele, of Richmond, who addressed the meeting by special invitation. At the conclusion of his speech, the Hon. S. J. Person addressed the meeting forcibly and to the point.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Mary Jedreys, colored, vs. Frank Jones, colored,—bastardy. Returned to the County Court.

Lucy Simmons, colored, vs. Wes. Harris, colored,—bastardy. Returned to the County Court.

City of Raleigh vs. Seth Nowell, colored, —draying in the City without a license.—Fined $5.

City of Raleigh vs. Job Jones, colored,—draying in the City without a license. Fined $5.

City of Raleigh vs. J. K. Howell,—draying in the City, with five wagons, without a license. Fined $25.

City of Raleigh vs. Abey Bevers,—draying in the City without a license. Fined $5

THE HOLDEN RECORD.—It will be observed, by the Prospectus, which we publish, in another column, that H. H. Helper, Esq., proposes to fight Holden, inside of the Republican party. He will publish an illustrated campaign paper, to be called the "Holden Record," and invites all lovers of the State to assist him in defeating the X. P. G., as an impediment to reconstruction. The publication of the Record will be commenced about the 12th of March, or as soon as the necessary cuts can be procured.

CONSERVATIVES MOVING.—At a Republican meeting, held at Washington, N. C., some days ago, F. B. Satterthwaite, Esq., was called on for a speech. He consented and threw hot shot into their ranks, which caused a scattering. Mr. S. is in for the contest.

NATIONAL BANK OF NEWBERN.—Col. Heaton having resigned the Presidency of this Bank, Maj. Jno. Hughes has been elected. An excellent selection.

For the Sentinel.

BERTIE COUNTY, Feb. 1868.

Messrs. Fell and Gales:—Bertie county was not represented in the recent Conservative Convention, held in Raleigh, on the 5th of February. The people in the county held no meeting for that purpose. The same is the case in regard to the Radical Convention, called together in Raleigh on the 26th of this month. No white man has been authorized to speak for, or represent, Bertie county in said Convention. It is susceptible of the highest doubt, whether or not there can be found, in the county, ten respectable and intelligent white men, who will endorse the policy of the Radical party. The intellect and intelligence in the county, being set aside by the Reconstruction acts, the county can only be represented by the scum of its population.

Remove the disabilities at the ballot box, and Bertie will send to the next Legislature three true white Conservative Union representatives. Until the moral and intellectual worth of the county are enfranchised, it must remain in the hands of such men as are willing to become the tools of whatever party will take them in, and fill their pockets with official crumbs,—eight dollars a day to start with. Let no white man claim to be a delegate to the Radical Convention of the 26th., through the delegated power of the people in the county.

WYCON.

[The above comes from one of the staunchest and most consistent Union men in the county of Bertie.—EDS. SENTINEL.]

For the Sentinel.

MEMBER OF CONGRESS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The status of this District looks ominous for the Conservatives. It is, perhaps, within the range of possibility to elect a Conservative to Congress. But who, among the many able Conservative men in the District, can take the test oath, if he were elected to Congress?—No man strikes me, at present, as being able to take that oath. I have, therefore, concluded to throw out the suggestion for the people of the District to consider: Would it not be well, if the Conservatives can do so, to agree to cast their votes for Daniel R. Goodloe, Esq., of Wake? He is known to be a Republican, honestly so, no doubt. He is a man of ability, and on principle favors universal suffrage and universal amnesty.—He is unmistakably opposed to all disfranchisements of white men or any disabilities upon the citizens of the State. He is devoted to her real interests, and, while I consider his political views objectionable, yet it may be that he is the only respectable man in the District, who can take the test-oath, who could be elected. Let the people think of it. CIVIS.

[Our columns, of course, are open to the suggestions of friends, but the Sentinel can only pledge its support to those who may be approved by the Conservatives.—EDS. SENTINEL.]

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN LENOIR.

According to previous notice, a portion of the Conservatives of Lenoir met in the Court House, in Kinston, on Saturday, the 22nd. inst.

When, on motion, the meeting was called to order by Mr. J. C. Washington, as Chairman, and Dr. H. W. Blount, as Secretary.

The object of the meeting being briefly and forcibly explained by the Chairman,

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, viz: L. C. Desmond, H. F. Bond, W. W. Dunn, T. C. Kennedy, and A. Munroe, who after an absence of a few minutes reported the following:

Resolved, That we approve the action of the late Conservative Convention, which was held in Raleigh, on the 5th of February, and the Declaration of principles as laid down by that body, and we pledge our every exertion and sacrifice in support of these principles.

That for the preservation of those principles we approve of the Plan of Organization, as adopted by the said Convention.

That we recognize as not the least important step taken by the Convention, the appointment of county Canvassers for the several counties, and would recommend to the Executive Committee for the different districts to confer with, and make appointments for, these gentlemen, and give to them all other support and encouragement within their power.

On motion of A. Munroe, the following gentlemen were appointed as an Executive Committee for the county at large, viz: Dr. J. P. Bryan, S. H. Rountree, W. W. Dunn, L. C. Desmond, Dr. T. A. Woodley, H. F. Granger, S. B. West, Dr. J. A. Hartsfield, A. S. Loftin, Dr. Brown and John F. Wooten.

The following gentlemen were also appointed as Executive Committees for the several districts in the county:

Pink Hill.—S. W. Nobles, J. W. Kinsey, A. Davis.

Tuckahoe.—N. B. Whitfield, D. S. Davis, W. S. Byrd.

Woodington.—Wm. Sutton, Jno. A. Parrott, Calvin Herring.

Sand Hill.—Jesse B. Nobles, Wm. F. Loftin, W. M. West.

Mosely Hall.—Dr. Hadley, Wm. J. Sutton, J. P. Harper.

Institute.—Noah Rouse, F. A. Brothers, J. M. Patrick.

Upper Kinston.—Jas. M. Parrott, J. T. Askew, and L. J. Mewborn.

Lower Kinston.—T. A. Harvey, T. J. Preson, D. J. Long.

Neck.—John H. Coward, H. S. Lee, Alex. Fields.

On motion of A. Munroe, the Chairman then appointed the following gentlemen as delegates to a Conservative Convention for the Second Judicial District, soon to be called by the Executive Committee to nominate candidates for Congress and for other purposes, viz: John C. Wooten and W. W. Dunn.

On motion, the Chairman and Secretary were added to the Executive Committee for the county at large.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

Our Noon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29, M.

Great interest is felt about the articles of impeachment, but there is no excitement.

The quo warranto papers are withheld, for further examination of the law, but will certainly be filed early next week. Under the present ruling Stanton will have a month to prepare his answer.

An immense anti-impeachment meeting was held in New York, last night.

The Chemical Works of Powers & Weightman, Philadelphia, were burned last night. Several persons are reported killed.

THE ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29, P. M.

The impeachment articles are:

1. The removal of Stanton, with an intention to violate the Constitution and laws.

2. The appointment to the War Secretaryship, with like intent, of one Lorenzo Thomas.

3. Conspiracy, with Thomas and others unknown, to hinder Stanton, by intimidation and threats, from executing his office.

4. Conspiracy with Thomas and others to prevent and hinder the execution of the Tenure-of-office bill.

5. Appointment of Thomas while the Senate was in session.

6. Conspiracy with Thomas to seize the property of the United States, contrary to the Act of July, 1861.

7. Conspiracy with Thomas and others to eject Stanton from the War Office.

8. Conspiracy to take possession of the property in the War Office.

9. Giving a letter to Thomas, authorizing him to take possession of the War Office.

10. Persuading Gen. Emory against the law requiring orders from the President and Secretary of War to come through the General of the Armies.

The House saves the privilege of presenting other charges to sustain impeachment, and in reply to the President's answer to the above charges.

Nine charges are simply ringing the changes on Stanton's removal. The 10th applies to Emory's interview, wherein the President asked:—"Am I to understand that the President of the United States cannot give an order, but through the General-in-Chief or Gen. Grant?" After saying "Yes," Emory withdrew.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29, P. M.

The Maryland Legislature, after protesting against the rejection of Senator Thomas, resolved to meet, on Monday, to elect an acceptable Senator.

It is stated that Stanton has restored the Freedmen's Bureau to Kentucky.

Stanton remains at the War Department constantly.

The debate on the impeachment articles concludes on Monday, and they will be presented to the Senate, on Tuesday.

The probabilities of impeachment are weakening.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29, P. M.

SENATE.—Procedure in impeachment was under consideration all day. Considerable difference of opinion, regarding details, was manifested, but repeated motions to adjourn were defeated by a disposition to push the matter to completion.

HOUSE.—After private business the impeachment articles were introduced and discussed to adjournment.

The galleries were not crowded to-day.

ALABAMA, MOVING.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 29 P. M.

The Executive Committee of the State of Alabama met in this city, to-day.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, first, That a Convention of the white people of Alabama, without distinction of old political parties, opposed to negro domination and misrule in the Government, be called to meet at the city of Montgomery, on the 1st. Monday of June, for the purpose of taking measures to sustain and co-operate with the National Democracy of the Union in the approaching election for President and Vice President of the United States.

Second, That if, in the opinion of the Conservative State Executive Committee, events should transpire to render expedient or necessary that the said State Convention be called at an earlier day it shall have the power to convoke it.

Third, That five citizens be appointed to repair to Washington and to remain there as long as it is necessary to represent the political interests of this people, and to keep our friends of the North advised of the state of affairs in Alabama.

Fourth, That the friends of the cause are earnestly advised to maintain an active political organization in every town and county of the State, with a view to be ready to support white supremacy and constitutional government, under whatever contingencies may arise.

Peter M. Dox, of Madison, J. J. Giers, of Morgan, Lee Parsons, of Talladega, H. T. Randall, of Dallas, and Jno. Forsyth, of Mobile, were appointed a committee under the third resolution.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Feb. 29, P. M.

The Convention, to-day, was still discussing Suffrage. Monday is fixed to take a vote.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PUBLIC OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.,

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York, in Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For sale of lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

TURNER'S TIC DOULOUREUX OR Universal Neuralgia PILL.

A SAFE, CERTAIN, AND Speedy Cure for NEURALGIA, AND ALL NERVOUS DISEASES.

Its Effects are Magical.

IT IS THE UNFAILING REMEDY in all cases of Neuralgia Facialis, often effecting a perfect cure in less than twenty-four hours, from the use of no more than TWO OR THREE PILLS.

No other form of Neuralgia or Nervous Disease has failed to yield to this WONDERFUL REMEDIAL AGENT.

Even in the severest cases of Chronic Neuralgia and general nervous derangements,—of many years standing,—affecting the entire system, its use for a few days, or a few weeks at the utmost, always affords the most astonishing relief, and very rarely fails to produce a complete and permanent cure.

It contains no drugs or other materials in the slightest degree injurious, even to the most delicate system, and can ALWAYS be used with PERFECT SAFETY.

It has long been in constant use by many of MOST DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIANS, who give it their unanimous and unqualified approval.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, Feb. 15, 1868.

THE BOARD OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS, in consequence of the certificate to them under an act of the General Assembly entitled "An Act to authorize the President and Directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company to put said Road under contract," ratified 27th February 1867, having notified me to substribe for one million, three hundred and forty-two thousand four hundred and sixty-six and 66/100 dollars of the capital stock of said Company, in order to pay said subscription, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned on or before the 2nd. day of March 1868, for the purchase of one million three hundred and forty-two thousand dollars, bonds of the State of North Carolina, with coupons for interest at 6 per cent, payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each year, at the National Bank of the Republic in the City of New York, and the principal payable at the end of thirty years from the 1st. January 1868, said bonds to be of the denomination of $1,000 each.

As collateral security for the payment of each bond, ten shares of stock in the North Carolina Railroad Company, are required, in accordance with "An Act to enhance the value of the Bonds to be issued for the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad and for other purposes," ratified 13th December 1866.

The aforesaid Bonds are exempt from taxation. No bid for less than par will be entertained.

DEAD IN THE STREET.

A CITY INCIDENT.

Under the lamp lights, dead in the street,
Delicate, fair, and only twenty,
There she lies,
Face to the skies,
Starved to death in a city of plenty,
Spurned by all that is pure and sweet,
Passed by busy and careless feet—
Hundreds bent upon folly and pleasure;
Hundreds with plenty, and time, and leisure—
Leisure to speed Christ's mission below,
To teach the erring and raise the lowly
Plenty, in charity's name, to show
That life has something divine and holy.

Boasted charms—classical brow,
Delicate features—look at them now;
Look at her lips—once they could smile;
Eyes—well, never more shall they beguile:
Never more, never more word of hers
A blush shall bring to the saintliest face.
She has found, in its hope and trust,
Peace in a higher and better place;
And yet, despite of all, still I ween,
Joy of some heart she must have been.
Some fond mother, proud of the task,
Has stooped to finger each daily curl;
Some vain father has bowed to ask
A blessing for her, his darling girl.
Hard to think as we look at her there,
Of all the tenderness, love and care,
Lonely watching and sore heart-ache,
All the agony, burning tears,
Joys and sorrows, and hopes and fears,
Breathed and suffered for her sweet sake.
Fancy will picture a home afar
Out where the daisies and buttercups are,
Out where life-giving breezes blow
Far from these sodden streets, foul and low;
Fancy will picture a lonely hearth,
And an aged couple dead to mirth—
An aged couple broken and gray,
Kneeling beside a bed to pray;
Or lying awake o' nights to hark
For a thing that may come in the rain and the dark
A hollow-eyed woman, with weary feet,
Better they never know
She whom they cherished so
Lies this night, lone and low,
Dead in the street.

THE GOING MAN.—Grant pere, in the New York Ledger for this week, tells sundry piquant and surprising stories concerning the adolescent exploits of Grant fils.

Among others we find one naively recounting how the young Sam. Ulysses boldly bestrode a circus mule, despite all the efforts of that animal, seconded by those of a famous monkey, to dismount him.

As the twig's bent the tree's inclined.—Mulish in his boyhood, Ulysses is horsey in his prime. Here is progression for you. But, seriously, there is many a little cornfield nigger in the South who can produce satisfactory evidence of having performed the same exploit which Grant, Senior, relates of his prodigy. We wonder if Bonner would pay us two dollars a line for a faithful report of Cæsar Smith's triumph over Dan Castello's renowned January.—Pet. Index.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members, six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of free labor and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 29th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865 unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and, except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 15th. day of May, 186

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemption hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (estate qua talis), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any gubernatorial election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise money," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of the order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868
